In and around Herning there is plenty of experiences to be had, when you are not at the exhibition.

You can enjoy the beautiful nature of Gjellerup Enge, Løvbakkerne in Gullestrup or Skarrild Hede south of Herning.

There are also many cultural experiences available in museums like CHPEA (Carl Henning Pedersen and Else Alfelts museum), Heart (Herning Museum of Contemporary Art), Tekstilmuseet (The textile museum), or Søby brown coal field just south of Herning.

If you like live cultural experiences this is possible at Herning Ny teater or at some of the many events under the auspices of MCH.

Hall'n is the new center of Hammerum and Gjellerup, to suburbs east of Herning. Here school, library and sports facilities for the entire area has been combined.

If you need a short break during your visit, you have the possibility of enjoying food or coffee from the cafeteria in Hall'n.

For those coming from further away there is easy access by train (700 m to the train station) and local buses from Herning (<500 m). If you arrive by car there are many free parking spaces around Hall'n with no time restriction.
